

TIGER GOLD

Hail Chief!

Michael Gaule: “Come here SON!” He would walk up behind you in the cafeteria and just as you were putting food in your mouth grab a handful of hair and say "Git your hair cut"!

Jean Ocelot: For a middle schooler, the sight of Brother Timothy was Fear Distilled. Even the title of his office, Prefect of Discipline, was terrifying.

Dan Simpson: Must say he was one of a kind there will never be another one like him and that is sad. We paid him respect and, yes, he returned it.

Martin Ron Fernandez: He would point his finger at you so that there was no mistake who he wanted.

Ken Berthelot: Not even Santa could pass one over the Prefect of Discipline. And since he is with Santa Claus, that's a Brother Timothy Hickey smile ... I think !!

Gregg Salathe: One Saturday while taking Drivers Ed, and waiting for my mom to pick me up, he walked by me wearing Bermuda shorts and a short sleeve shirt. He went to the Brother's Garage, and then I heard the deep rumble of a V8. Out he comes driving a '71 Super Bee. He smiled and waved at me. I was never QUITE so scared of him after that!

Santa checking with Br. Timothy Hickey on who's been naughty or nice.

Nick Saltaformaggio: When one thinks of a disciplinarian or as they say in education today Dean of Men Br. Timothy Hickey set the bar.

Pat Wolfe: Probably telling Santa to "get your hair cut!"

David Donze: I was so scared of him as a Freshman, but once you got to know him he was great (provided you stayed out of trouble!!!)

Roni Sumich: Hail Chief. Brings back many memories from a life long ago.

Barry Uhle: His speeches at all Pep Rallies were the best!

Nick Cusimano: He was a great guy. My senior year we would just laugh together at some of the foolishness going on. Get a haircut !!!!

Carl LaForge

Carl R. LaForge, Sr. passed away on Thursday, February 7, 2019, at the age of 88. Carl was born in Girard, KS on January 24, 1931. His first encounter with the love of his life, JoAnn, was in grade school at a one-room schoolhouse in Kansas. Later in life, he married JoAnn in 1955. They started their family together in Wichita, KS, before moving to New Orleans in 1966. Carl worked at NASA for a few years before returning to teaching, which is what he enjoyed most. He taught at Holy Cross High School for 22 years and at Jesuit High School for 5 years before retiring.

Dropping Back

John Glorioso once jokingly commented he never threw the ball. Here's a photo of him dropping back to pass against Abramson in 1970, while Dennis Delaney and Kenny Duke provide protection in a 20 to Zip win.

According to the States-Item: "The Tigers, the pick of many to capture the tough District 6AAAA crown this year, combined a powerful ground game and a hard hitting defense into the victory."

JOHN GLORIOSO, quarterback for Holy Cross drops back to pass behind the protection of DENNIS DELANEY (77) and KEN DUKE (30). Trying to get his hands on Glorioso is MIKE MATTHEWS (78) of Abramson. Holy Cross downed Abramson 20-0 last night at Tad Gormley Stadium in the season opener for both teams. —States-Item photo.

HC had 19 first downs and 300 yards of offense (including 7 of 12 passes for 79 yards) to Abramson's 7 first downs and 99 yards of offense. Four Tigers scored: Don Schwander, Glenn Herbert, Charlie Spitale, and David Falgoust.

Ty Yokum: I think another reason John didn't throw much is because it was hard for him to see over his lineman. (Something I could identify with)

John Glorioso: I look tall in this picture!! I need to blow it up and put in my classroom.

Math Counts

Br. Donald introduces Roni Sumich and Michael Beach to freshman algebra with a protractor, dividers, and something that looks like a parallel ruler.

Roni Sumich: I think the ruler was to keep our attention!!!!

White Pelicans

Some white pelicans hanging out in Rene Bull's north Alabama's back yard.

He says that he's not sure why they were there with weather in the 20-30's at the end of January.

Sports Award Banquet

The Class of '71 cleaned up at the Sports Awards Banquet in 1971. Award winners were Ty Yokum (scholastic award), Glenn Herbert (most valuable in football), Tony Soto (most valuable in swimming), Don Hergert (most valuable in baseball), Kenny Duke (the Butch Duhe Memorial award), Bobby Poche (most valuable in basketball), Dennis Delaney (the Jack Valley Memorial award), and Steve Ferrer (most valuable in track).

Wisconsin Dells

Steve and Claudia Schulz spent a week kayaking and zip lining at the Christmas Mountain Resort in the Wisconsin Dells with their daughter Alicia and her husband Brian.

They also flew to Paris spending several days there before busing to LeHarve to board a Princess cruise ship for a two week trip around the British Isles.

“Our trip included Guernsey, London,

Cork, and Dublin in Ireland, Belfast Northern Ireland, and several places in Scotland, including Loch Ness, Loch Lombard, and Culloden battlefield,” said Steve.

Speed Readers

Doak Wattigney, Lee Jones, and Leslie Anticich learn how to speed read in the 7th grade – at least that what the caption said. It looks more like they were beta testing the Kindle or the I-pad.

Wingbacks

Bobby Wahl and Glenn deGruy were Wingbacks for this 1970 game against St Aug. I'm guessing that a Wingback is the archaic word for Safety or Cornerback. The Tigers demolished the Purple Knights 20-9 in front of 20,000 fans. Mark Kalbacher and Kenny Duke each scored a touchdown.

Bobby Wahl: Wingback was offensive term for slotback- usually lined up behind tight end in backfield.

Jeffrey J Junker: Which explains why they never let me write sports stories ????
Had a great time getting together and catching up with Larry Folse last Saturday. We haven't seen each other since 1971. Top pic was from 1967/8 when we were freshman at Holy Cross. Look forward to getting together again soon. It's amazing how we haven't aged a day!

Bill Pedeaux and Larry Folse had a mini-reunion in north Louisiana.

Soccer Team

The 2019 version of the HC Soccer Team just put together back-to-back State Championships. Nola.com reported as follows: : the Tigers defeated Lakeshore 3-1 on penalty kicks after the match was tied 1-1 at the end of regulation and overtime periods Thursday night (Feb. 21) in the 2019 Allstate Sugar Bowl/LHSAA Division II Boys’ Soccer Championships at Louisiana-Lafayette’s Cajun Field.”

The 1971 edition were no slouches either: they finished regular season play with a 6-1-1 record. They were tripped up in the playoffs by our old nemesis Redemptorist.

Student Council

Ron Blitch, Ricky Zimmer, Al Perry, Terry J. McGaha, and Steve Williams inside the student council office.

The caption reads: "This organization is a binding force which brings the students together in a common effort for a common cause. It also instills within the students a sense of pride, loyalty, responsibility, and independence. The Student Council builds character and is a noteworthy preparation for the future."

Ghosts of Christmas Past

And for some more current snow

And while on a hike at Palmer Lake Colorado, Bert Brocato snapped this shot.

From a 1932 issue of the Holy Cross Bulletin

Tony the Snowball Man making his daily visit.

The newspaper article said that “the eager youngsters gathered around the mule-drawn cart only paid 7 cents each for the treat made of shaved ice. Mixing colors was a popular notion then. According to the Bulletin, a youth identified only as Willie asked for green and red, prompting the snowball man to deliver a cool blend of spearmint and strawberry.”
